

Dear Colleague,

Greetings from the International Students Office!

There is a demand for a Global Summer School at PU from our partner international universities. Since this is something relatively new for all of us and the deadline is close, this office will conduct a workshop. For faculty members on March 27, 2017 from ten am to four pm. It is suggested that the chairperson and one faculty member should attend the workshop, but if more members want to attend, they are welcome!

Please send us the names of your participants before March 17, 2017.
